VIRGEN MILAGROSA UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION

Virgen Milagrosa University Foundation (VMUF) is a privately-supported coeducational institution offering courses in the medical and paramedical fields, in liberal and applied arts, sciences, and technical-vocational courses, secondary, elementary and pre-school courses. Since, its inception, VMUF has been concerned with educating young men and women in skills, concepts and values that lead to success in life, while helping them prepare for worthwhile service to GOD and humanity.

The curriculum and activities of VMUF are geared toward helping each student achieve his or her God-given potential. VMUF strives to develop every facet of one's being mentally, physically, emotionally, psychologically and most important, spiritually.

Virgen Milagrosa University Foundation (VMUF) will chart its course in the next decade with new avenues opened to enhance the manifold services it offers. It will continue to play its role for the promotion and advancement of knowledge for the country's total development as well as to meet the challenges of changing world by teaching the students not only how to earn a living but more importantly "HOW TO LIVE".

VMUF covers 19 hectares land area in Long Taloy district, San Carlos City, Pangasinan, about 200 km, north of Manila, the capital of the Philippines. The Philippine national games (Palarong Pambansa) was held for the first time in there in 1995.

In 1979, the first 21 medical graduates also scored a 100% passing rate in Philippines Medical Board Exams.

The construction of VIRGEN MILAGROSA MEDICAL CENTER was started in 1972 and it was completed and inaugurated on February 16, 1974. Initially it was a 100-bed capacity with ICU, CCU, and complete laboratory facilities. Currently it is a 400 bedded hospital attached within the campus.
